

Challenging projects in the Life Science Industry

Project Innovation for Manufacturing Excellence

The prime4services GmbH is a young and fast-growing service company, that delivers with its experienced Life Sciences experts consultancy and project management services into areas of production, packaging and supply chain on international levels.

To strengthen our team, we are looking to fill the following vacant positions with immediate effect one/several

Consultants / Project manager Production Management / MES (m/f)

With academic degree, 5 to 8 years of working experience and proven record in the pharmaceutical production management / MES arena.

- Comprehensive experience in regulations, scenarios, process-mapping and technologies in the areas of electronic controlled manufacturing in regulated industries
  - Proven record with processes and regulations in production and packaging areas in regulated industries
  - Distinct sense of responsibility, independent and self-dependent working methodology, consultant mentality and problem-solving approach
  - Good English & German language skills, speaking & writing
  - Readiness for longer international business travelling as well as personal flexibility and performance-diver

We expect

We offer

- Fulltime employment in a young and dynamic team with short decision making processes and comprehensive influence
- Equitable salary and incentives
- Explicit and actively driven opportunities for personal development, internally as well as for customer care

prime4services GmbH | Yasmine Peters Marketing & Human Resources
Rüppurrer Straße 1 | 76137 Karlsruhe | Germany jobs@prime4services.com www.prim4services.com