

Challenging projects in the Life Science Industry

Project Innovation for Manufacturing Excellence

The prime4services Srl is a young and fast-growing service company, that delivers with its experienced Life Sciences experts consultancy and project management into areas of production, packaging and supply chain on international levels.

For an international one-year trainee program within a dynamic and crisis-proven environment we are looking with immediate effect for

Young Professionals (academic degree)

From the areas Information Technology, Mechanical Engineering, Industrial engineering, Business Informatics as well as Medical engineering and Medical Informatics

We expect

- High technical basic understanding as well as interest for technical processes and process automation
- Extroverted nature with high degree of independence and openness for new things
- Interest in interactive project work
- Good English language skills, speaking & writing, German and further foreign language skills are an advantage
- Readiness for longer stay in foreign countries of Europe as well as personal flexibility and willingness to perform

We offer

... an intensive, related to practice mentoring program with appropriate compensation and the perspective of a fast development as project engineer or consultant within an interesting area

prime4services GmbH | Yasmine Peters
Marketing & Human Resources
Rüppurrer Straße 1 | 76137 Karlsruhe
jobs@prime4services.com | www.prim4services.com